

Contents

The North York Post Volume 9 Issue 6

February 2008

COUNTDOWN TO CAMP

Toronto's best guide to sensational summer camps!

PAGES 51 - 71

11 Celebrate Do Nothing Day

The wisecracking cast of Royal Canadian Air Farce love our new holiday, Family Day, but they'd prefer a more accurate name. How about Seasonal Affected Disorder Day, 24 Day or even Do Nothing Day (providing we keep essential services like pizza delivery). by Katy Peplinskie

18 Luxury homes priced to move

Is a $500,000 drop in the asking price of a home a strategy to sell or admitting defeat? We've selected six luxury homes in the GTA's finest neighbourhoods with reduced prices to find out. by Sam Toman

33 Eckler's slumber party

What do you get for the man who has everything this Feb. 14? How about a set of the hottest PJs in town? Our intrepid Shop Girl cozies up to the silkiest, softest most luxurious pyjamas, perfect for this amorous occasion. by Rebecca Eckler

36 Wedding proposals gone wild

With Valentine's Day here, we've rounded up the neighbourhood's funniest, strangest and most adorable marriage proposals. From billboards of love to bad translations, these touching tales will warm your heart this winter. by Laura Schweiger

43 Susur's great cupcake caper

In tasting the town's top cupcakes, we stuck to the old adage — don't trust anyone over 30. So we've enlisted Susur Lee and his young son Jet to sample the city's most scrumptious hot-from-the-oven delights. by Karen Aagaard

34

MIRANDA KWOK

From swinging swords to winning awards, how North York's hardest working star conquered Hollywood

Favourites

10 Politics

12 Break-ins

13 Local Hero

49 Restaurant Review

78 Looking Back